

A National Recitation Competition

POETRY OUT LOUD

Poetry Out Loud provides opportunities for HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS to read and recite poetry with their peers listening.

Competitions begin at the schools.

School winners advance to the Regional Competition.

One regional winner advances to the State Competition in Sacramento.

The California State Winner competes in Washington D.C.

<http://www.poetryoutloud.org>

- Open to students in grades 9–12
- No cost to students or teachers
- Poems must be selected from the Poetry Out Loud anthology
- Students prepare THREE poems for competition
- Poetry Workshops available
- Teacher Tool-Kits available
- Registration Deadline November 30, 2017
- School Competition Completed by January 31, 2017 (Assistance available for school competitions upon request)
- San Diego Regional Finals - February 6, 2018 (Coordinated by Write Out Loud in association with City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture)
- State Finals - March 4-5, 2018 in Sacramento
- National Finals - April 23-25 in Washington, DC

A Program of the National Endowment for the Arts and The Poetry Foundation Administered by the California Arts Council and Coordinated in San Diego by WRITE OUT LOUD

Commission for Arts and Culture

To view a video go to www.writeoutloudsd.com writeoutloudsd@gmail.com • 619-297-8953